14th November 2017

Anti-Bullying Week.

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week in school we will be concentrating on bullying to coincide with National Anti-Bullying Week (13th – 17th November) with the overarching focus being ‘All Different, All Equal’. As a school we will be talking about bullying, what a bully is, what bullying behaviour looks like and what the children should do if they are being bullied or if they witness someone else being bullied.

To raise awareness for Anti-Bullying Week, we at Oakmeadow are going to take part in ‘Odd Socks Day’ that the Anti-Bullying Alliance have launched especially for this week. On Wednesday 15th November, the children can come to school wearing odd socks to help us to celebrate what makes us individual and unique! There is no request for donations for this so there is no cost.

We are sure that the children will enjoy this as a part of the anti-bullying work that they will be taking part on throughout the week.

Thank you for your continued support,

Miss White
